I go outside, I smell it
A mysterious verb is in the air...
I got an asthma fit
This is so unfair but I'm outside in the fresh air with the fresh air breathing in the fresh air

Tastes good, Jim!
I gotta pay my bills tho...
Please buy soil at Lowes.com i'm lonely

I go outside
(It's dark!)
I touch the grass
(It's dark!)
I eat the dirt
(It's dirt!)
It's dark outside
(It's dark!)

I go outside
(It's dark!)
I touch the grass
(It's dark!)
I eat the dirt
(It's dirt!)
It's dark outside

Why don't you retweet my tweet?
You know that'd be real neat
That dirt on your feet...
Looks like a real treat!
(Jim!)

I might be a worm
But at least my rhymes are firm
They call me Earthworm Len
Yea

Where's my shovel?
(It's dark!)
Shit I opened Skype and I can't get it to stop

(It's dark!)
GHOST and Aria are bullying Ponko!
(It's dirt!)
It's dark outside

Give a standing ovation
For every crustacean
A worm? He's an earthworm!
A big boy worm!

Take a munch of the good crunch!
If it's crunchy and good, it's a good munch!
If you have a good time it's a good crunch!
Think of a crunch: If it's a munch, its good

Is it possible? Can it happen?
Can't have the crunch without the munch
It's like a good relationship
You don't want an unhealthy crumch

LISTEN!
Listen
Do you hear it?

Fortify the night,
For the soil of the Gods
Is in my veins, in my heart
Nevermore, nevermore
Shall you take what was mine
For the soil of the Gods
Is in the visceral remains
Forever
